Plan conditions

Water sharing plan

Murrumbidgee Regulated River Water Source 2016

Take of water

MW3574-00001

Before water is taken under this access licence a water order must be placed and confirmed by WaterNSW.

Monitoring and recording

MW2337-00001

The following information must be recorded in the logbook for each period of time that water is taken:

- A. date, volume of water, start and end time when water was taken as well as the pump capacity per unit of time, and
- B. the access licence number under which the water is taken, and
- C. the approval number under which the water is taken, and
- D. the volume of water taken for domestic consumption and/or stock watering.

This condition ceases to apply to a work on the day that the recording and reporting requirements apply to that work under the Water Management (General) Regulation 2018.

Glossary

domestic consumption - Domestic consumption is the use of water for normal household purposes in domestic premises situated on the land.

logbook - A logbook is a document, electronic or hard copy, that records specific required information.

stock watering - Stock watering is the use of water for stock animals being raised on the land. It does not include the use of water for the raising of stock animals on an intensive commercial basis (kept in feedlots or buildings for all, or a substantial part, of the period during which the stock animals are being raised).

General Notes

All conditions on a water access licence require compliance. An appeal to the Land and Environment Court against a decision to impose certain conditions on an approval can be made within 28 days after the date the decision is made. Conditions identified with the first letter "D" are those that can be appealed during the appeal period.

Certain dealings and other matters relating to this water access licence or a holding in this water access licence must be registered in the Access Register in accordance with section 71A of the Water Management Act 2000. For information about the Access Register, contact Land and Property Information (<http://www.lpi.nsw.gov.au>).
